Nepal Technical Assistance Mission – February 13 to 18

- Self-Regulation: ACCU CEO Ranjith Hettiarachchi provided inputs to Nepal Federation of Savings and Credit Cooperative Unions (NEFSCUN) in setting up the self-regulation system for SACCOS and the progress review of the Strategic Plan on February 13. The Annual General Meeting of NEFSCUN approves the adoption of self-regulation for the safety and soundness of SACCOS.
- ACCESS: The Chairman and Manager of seven partner SACCOS attended the ACCESS review meeting on February 14. A detailed scrutiny on the adherence to delinquency disclosure was made during the meeting. Being the most important prudential norm, the partner SACCOS agreed to review the disclosure of portfolio at risk on a monthly basis. It was also made clear that compliance to delinquency and institutional capital ratio are pre-requisites to ACCESS accreditation.
- CUCCC: Thirty-two managers of SACCOS signed up in the first CEOs Competency Course organized by NEFSCUN on February 15-16 for Modules 1-4. The part two will be organized in May (Module 5-10) after the participants have submitted the post course assignment by April 15. NEFSCUN runs the competency course for Directors and CEOs on a fee basis.

- ACCU CEO facilitated the promotional seminar of NEFSCUN's institutional development program in the western part of Nepal (Biratnagar) on February 17. The seminar, attended by 30 SACCOS created awareness on the need to adopt prudential standards, offer financial services according to members' needs and establish comprehensive policies for professional management. On fee basis, the SACCOS agreed to access the technical assistance from NEFSCUN to professionalize their operations.
- The CUMI Summit on February 18 was participated by 45 leaders from 30 SACCOS. NEFSCUN has a commitment to share minimum 100,000 new 'have less' to the Asian credit union target of 1 million poor reached by CUMI in 2012. An intensive campaign on CUMI is being made by NEFSCUN across Nepal.
